AT&T STUDY ABROAD TRAVEL GRANT

TMP is a program designed to maximize the experience of students pursuing degrees in Science, Technology, Engineering, Pre-Health and Math in order to increase their retention, achievement, and graduation. The TMP Study Abroad Travel Grant will support students in TMP in participating in credit bearing and non-credit bearing study abroad experiences. Awards will be based on program costs and will generally be in the amount of $500.00 to $1000.00. Awardees may competitively reapply. Priority will be given to first time applicants.

To be eligible for this grant Mentees must:

- Be active participants in the Team Mentoring Program and be in good academic standing
- Must attend a Global Cougs 101 session and identify a program
- Complete this application and commit to provide an evaluation on the impact of the experience on your educational goals upon completion of the semester/term
- Attach a current resume (you can ask your TMP Mentor or academic advisor for help or visit the Academic Success and Career Center)

This grant is sponsored by the AT&T TMP Grant and can be used during the Fall of 2017 or Spring, Summer, Fall of 2018.

Application Priority Deadlines

DESCRIBE the event you wish to attend. Include a description of the study abroad program you plan to participate in and how the experience will benefit you in accomplishing your long term goals. Add additional page if necessary. Include the following information: estimated total cost, estimated airfare, living expenses and whether you secured other sources of aid? If so, include how much aid have you received.

Impact of the Experience on your educational goals: A write up of your experience is required upon your return. This should include program title, location, description of the experience, lessons learned, and recommendations. A statement from you may be used on the TMP website to promote the opportunity for future students and you may be invited to talk to students about your experience in the future.
